
PEAK CHOICES Community Service Discussion Guide

Do each of the three steps in this process (see Peak Choices Guidelines document for more details):

1. Fill in all the answers below, as completely and honestly as you can.
2. Sit and discuss your answers with a trusted peer partner or an adult counselor or sponsor; write any additional discoveries, thoughts or feelings on the printed form.
3. Share your answers in a group format, moderated by a counselor, instructor, or other adult sponsor. Again, write any additional discoveries, thoughts or feelings on the printed form

With comments, suggestions, and feedback from the one-on-one discussion and from the group discussion, go back to your answers below and update them.

Answer the questions below on your experience in completing your community service.

Why do you think teens are required to do community service?

Why are YOU required to do community service?

Describe your community service:

Who will benefit from the work you do, and how will they benefit?

Who usually does the work you're doing?

Would you do community service on your own, if you weren't required to?

Yes No

Why or why not?

What is your general attitude about helping others and volunteering, without getting paid?

Consider the choices you made that required you to do community service. How might your community service change your future choices?
